I stopped in to visit Larry at U of MD hospital on Monday afer our reunion. If you would like to send a card or note, he is in Room NW70. He anticipates being there for a while for treatment. His 60th memento was delivered with the wish that he would be able to fill it and enjoy it soon!

Editor's Comment: Get well soon, your classmates are pulling for you.

Doris Holsinger

Our son, Michael J Hilton, retired from the Marines with 30 years of service. His retirement was held in Frederick Md with a reception afterwards. Many of the Marines he served with were in attendance.

EDUCATION SECTION

EATING IN THE FIFTIES

Pasta had not been invented. It was macaroni or spaghetti

Curry was a surname.

Taco? Never saw one till I was 15.

Pizza? Sounds like a leaning tower somewhere.

Bananas and oranges only appeared at Christmas time.

All chips were plain.

Oil was for lubricating, fat was for cooking.

Tea was made in a teapot using tea leaves and never green.

Cubed sugar was regarded as posh.

Chickens didn't have fingers in those days.

None of us had ever heard of yogurt.

Healthy food consisted of anything edible!

Cooking outside was called camping.

Seaweed was not a recognized food.

'Kebab' was not even a word, never mind a food.

Sugar enjoyed a good press in those days, and was regarded as being white gold.

Prunes were medicinal and stewed.

Surprisingly Muesli was readily available. It was called cattle feed.

Pineapples came in chunks or were round with a hole in the middle, in a tin; we had only ever seen a picture of a real one.

Water came out of the tap. If someone had suggested bottling it and charging more than gasoline for it, they would have become a laughing stock

There were three things that we never ever had on/at our table in the fifties...elbows, hats and cell phones!!!!!!

And there were always two choices for each meal... "Take it" or "Leave it"!!!!!!
