CLASSMATE ACTIVITIES

Doris Hilton

We had a wonderful Mother's Day. My son and family took us out to dinner on Friday and our daughter and her family brought dinner on Sunday.

Jone Burket, Larry Keller, Paul Keplinger,
Frit Hill, Larry Weber & Yours Truly

On May 11th, six Class of 57 members participated in the Relay for Life Golf Tournament that supports the Cancer Society. We were rained on for the best part of the round but we had a great time while supporting a worthy cause. Larry Weber had a conflict and arrived after the start but joined in late and finished the round. Plan to join in next year with your own foursome or give me a call and we will get you set up with a group. It is a "scramble" so no matter how good or poorly you play, you will have fun.

Ron Amos

I went on my annual catfishing trip to Lake Marion on the Santee Cooper reservoir system in South Carolina with a friend, Wayne Kline. Fishing with Captain Ray Mills, in two days we caught about 300 pounds of catfish, the largest weighing 32 pounds. Dotty prepared some catfish nuggets last evening using the Long John Silver batter recipe and they were fantastic. The catfish freezer is well stocked. with the fish supply taken care of, now it's time to get on that Harley, planning a trip to the coast of Maine with Chicago Bob who is from.....Chicago!

District 3 Track and Field: Kennedy Shank (Betty's granddaughter) of Northern takes AAA pole vault

Kennedy Shank did not leave the AAA girls' pole vault in much doubt at the District 3 Track and Field Championships Saturday afternoon.

Every height she cleared, Shank cleared on the first attempt, including her ultimate height of 12-0.

She then went for the district record of 12-3 but did not get that.

"I felt relieved [once I won], but it's good to have someone else there to push you to go higher," Shank said.

Editor's Comment: Congratulations Kennedy on a significant achievement that came about because of hard work and dedication!

Pat Jones

We have exciting news to share with you. Stevie's pilot for NBC got picked up which means the network, NBC, has decided to green light the pilot to series.

It's called CRISIS and she is one of the leads. The series will shoot starting this July in Chicago. We don't know how many episodes yet or when it will air but most likely it will start airing in the Fall. NBC's upfronts are Monday so we're sending her to NY so she can be involved and attend the NBC party. She's going to stay in the city for a few days to have some general meet and greets with the magazine press.

Editor's Comment: Wonder if she needs an agent?

Alice Ann Lindsey

My grandson, James Kiefer, graduated Magna cum laude from Virginia Tech on Saturday, May 18. He will be attending U. of MD Dental School here in Baltimore in the Fall. John and I enjoyed the celebration with the family -- sixteen of us. In the photo from left to right are John and Alice Ann Colton; my granddaughter, Lindsey Kiefer, sister of James; my daughter, Beth Robertson, mother of James; my daughter, Laura Robertson; and her husband, Rico Franklyn. The rest of the group included Beth's fiancé, Steve Matlack; Joan Colton Fink and her husband Will as well as the Kiefer side of the family.

The photo was taken Friday, May 17 after all the seniors gathered to be recognized in Lane Stadium. We broiled in the sun Friday and dashed through the rain drops as we gathered in Cassel Coliseum Saturday when they were actually given their diplomas. At least we were indoors for that ceremony.

James planned well. After Saturday graduation, we drove thorough the beautiful Blacksburg, VA countryside to Beliveau Estate Winery for a wine tasting and delicious buffet lunch. In the evening we enjoyed dinner in nearby Eggleston, VA at The Palisades Restaurant after another beautiful drive. Even the rain and mist couldn't hide the beauty of the area or spoil our joyful celebration.

As I write this James is at West Point for a friend's graduation and later this week, he and Lindsey will join their father and step-mother for a trip to Costa Rica. Not a bad way to begin life as a graduate!!

North-South Annual Golf Outing

Editor's Comment: Some things never change, best Class of '57 athlete then, and still the best athlete today at 73, Terry Strock. Terry won the 2013 North-South tournament and on the last day of the event he started the day with three birdies, finished with six birdies (two chances at Eagle) and a score of 74 – missed shooting his age by one stroke.

2nd Place – Terry Gossard 3rd Place (Tie) – Jim Carnes & Ralph Kline

Below is a pic of all the Class of '57 participants and, three Class of '58 folks who like our class better than their own.

There was a North-South Nassau on the last day and the South Team won the front, back and overall and reduced the North Team's treasury.

Editor's Comment: We were also "blessed" with a couple of VPI alumni in the name of Leo Burke and Roland Wheeler, both of whom are certifiable.

Roger Kisiel

"Eagle Pride" is an award recognizing 8th graders, whose teachers nominate them for character, caring personality, positive attitude, and enthusiasm. Cameron, a.k.a. Camy, was nominated by his band and jazz band teacher. Camy plays trombone in the jazz band and 8th grade band. He was only one out of three 8th grade students who were selected to receive the award.

Ladies Luncheon

On May 21st a group of ladies from the Class of '57 held a luncheon at the Bavarian Inn in Shepherdstown, WV. They enjoyed a crab melt and good fellowship.

(L-R) Sandra Couchman, Susan Morton, Kirklyn Middlekauff, Nancy Carnes, Barbara Crider & Judy Iseminger.

Ralph Kline & Kirklyn Middlekauff

They tied the knot on May 4th. Honeymoon and parties are now over.

COMEDY SECTION

(Written by Kids)

1. HOW DO YOU DECIDE WHOM TO MARRY?

You got to find somebody who likes the same stuff. Like, if you like sports, she should like it that you like sports, and she should keep the chips and dip coming.

- Alan, age 10

No person really decides before they grow up who they're going to marry. God decides it all way before, and you get to find out later who you're stuck with.

- Kristen, age 10

2. WHAT IS THE RIGHT AGE TO GET MARRIED?

Twenty-three is the best age because you know the person FOREVER by then.

- Camille, age 10

3. HOW CAN A STRANGER TELL IF TWO PEOPLE ARE MARRIED?

You might have to guess, based on whether they seem to be yelling at the same kids.

- Derrick, age 8

4. WHAT DO YOU THINK YOUR MOM AND DAD HAVE IN COMMON?

Both don't want any more kids.

- Lori, age 8

5. WHAT DO MOST PEOPLE DO ON A DATE?

Dates are for having fun, and people should use them to get to know each other. Even boys have something to say if you listen long enough.

-- Lynnette, age 8 (isn't she a treasure)

On the first date, they just tell each other lies and that usually gets them interested enough to go for a second date.

-- Martin, age 10

6. WHEN IS IT OKAY TO KISS SOMEONE?

When they're rich.

- Pam, age 7(Love her)

The law says you have to be eighteen, so I wouldn't want to mess with that.

7. IS IT BETTER TO BE SINGLE OR MARRIED?

It's better for girls to be single but not for boys. Boys need someone to clean up after them.

There sure would be a lot of kids to explain, wouldn't there?
