CLASSMATE ACTIVITIES

Ernie Barnhart

Our grandson Bryan Laferte, will be graduating from North High this year. He will be going to HCC for two years and then hopes to finish up at a four-year college. He played soccer and baseball for North and played for South's colt league team for a couple years.

Editor's Comment: Congratulations Bryan!

10th Annual Relay for Life Tournament

(L-R) Larry Keller, Paul Keplinger, Jone Burket Bowman and that handsome devil were the Class of 1957 members participating in the 2009 Tournament. The tournaments have raised over $150,000 for the Cancer Society.

Bob & Arlise Cianelli

Our Christmas gift to our children and grandchildren was a 6 day trip to Disney World followed immediately by a 4 day Disney Cruise. It was a great family vacation for all 10 of us.

Polly Fitz

During the Lent worship service ten worshippers had a star of blessing hidden in their bulletins. These special stars allowed those holding the bulletins to come after the service and get an envelope with $10 in it. The $10 was to be used any way they wished, as long as the money became a blessing to someone else.

The Martin family (Tara, Tom, Spencer and Samuel), by some quirk, actually ended up with two of the bulletins! Here is how they were a blessing' with their $10.

Samuel helped to purchase food that was donated to the Grace United Methodist Church clothes closet, which also helps in handing out some food. Samuel's grandparents, Bill and Polly Martin, are life-long members of this church.

The second $10 was donated in honor of one of the boys' neighbors, Grandpa Larry. Larry is known to the boys as someone always doing something or other for lots of other folks, so they wanted to recognize that with their gift. Larry's church was doing a special Rice Bowl

Relief program in Africa, so the second $10 was donated to this effort in honor of Larry. Thanks to the Martins for sharing with us the blessing of being a blessing to others!!

Editor's Comment: The above article was taken from the "Tidings Newsletter" Kids can teach adults a thing or two about compassion. A big "Atta-Boy" for Spencer & Samuel.

You might be a redneck if: You've never protested about seeing the 10 Commandments posted in public places.

You might be a redneck if: You still say 'Christmas' instead of 'Winter Festival.'

You might be a redneck if: You bow your head when someone prays.

You might be a redneck if: You stand and place your hand over your heart when they play the National Anthem.

You might be a redneck if: You treat our armed forces veterans with great respect, and always have.

You might be a redneck if: You've never burned an American flag, nor intend to.

You might be a redneck if: You know what you believe and you aren't afraid to say so, no matter who is listening.

You might be a redneck if: You respect your elders and raised your kids to do the same.

You might be a redneck if: You'd give your last dollar to a friend.

COMEDY CENTRAL FOR SENIORS

Editor's Comment: No worries ladies! No one goes that ugly no matter how much booze has passed their lips!

its always a station wagon

RECIPES

Editor's Comment: Guess no one is cooking anymore. You will have to get your buns to McDonalds, Burger King, Pizza Hut, or wherever.
