HAGERSTOWN, MD (April 6, 2010) – Five finalists from Washington County Public Schools (WCPS) have been named in the 2011 Teacher of the Year (TOY) program. Candidate interviews and classroom visits will be completed before a committee makes a final decision on the 2011 Teacher of the Year. The winner will be announced at the annual Teacher of the Year banquet sponsored by the Hagerstown/Washington County Chamber of Commerce Foundation at Fountain Head Country Club on April 28, 2010. WCPS Teacher of the Year finalists are:

Karri Ernst, an AP Government teacher at Boonsboro High School, has taught for WCPS for 12 years. Karri is a previous TOY nominee in 2003, Student Government Advisor of the Year in 2006, We the People competition advisor national finalist in 2007 and 2008, and American Legion speech contest advisor state finalist in 2009. She is a member of the Clear Spring Historical Society and is active in her church and in fundraising in her home community of Clear Spring. Karri says, "My role is to provide a place where students feel comfortable, yet challenged to go above and beyond what they think their capabilities are."

THINGS WE SHOULD KNOW BUT PROBABLY DON'T

1. Money isn't made out of paper, it's made out of cotton.
2. The Declaration of Independence was written on hemp (marijuana) paper.
3. The dot over the letter i is called a 'tittle'.
4. A raisin dropped in a glass of fresh champagne will bounce up and down continuously from the bottom of the glass to the top. (that makes my day!)
5. Susan Lucci is the daughter of Phyllis Diller.
6. 40% of Mc Donald's profits come from the sales of Happy Meals.
7. 315 entries in Webster's 1996 Dictionary were misspelled.
8. The 'spot' on 7UP comes from its inventor, who had red eyes. He was albino.
9. On average, 12 newborns will be given to the wrong parents, daily. (Just as I suspected))
10. Warren Beatty and Shirley McLain are brother and sister.
11. Chocolate affects a dog's heart and nervous system; a few ounces will kill a small-sized dog...
12. Orcas (killer whales) kill sharks by torpedoing up into the shark's stomach from underneath, causing the shark to explode.
13. Most lipstick contains fish scales (ewww).
14. Donald Duck comics were banned from Finland because he doesn't wear pants. (The Little Perv.)
15. Ketchup was sold in the 1830's as medicine.
16. Upper and lower-case letters are named 'upper' and 'lower' because in the time when all original print had to be set in individual letters, the 'upper case' letters were stored in the case on top of the case that stored the smaller, 'lower case' letters.
17. Leonardo Da Vinci could write with one hand and draw with the other at the same time, hence, multi-tasking was invented.
18. Because metal was scarce, the Oscars given out during World War II were made of wood.
19. There are no clocks in Las Vegas gambling casinos...
20. The name Wendy was made up for the book Peter Pan; there was never a recorded Wendy before!
21. There are no words in the dictionary that rhyme with: orange, purple, or silver!

22. Leonardo Da Vinci invented scissors. Also, it took him 10 years to paint Mona Lisa's lips.
23. A tiny amount of liquor on a scorpion will make it instantly go mad and sting itself to death...
24. If you have three quarters, four dimes, and four pennies, you have $1.19. You also have the largest amount of money in coins without being able to make change for a dollar. (Good to know.)
25. By raising your legs slowly and lying on your back, you can't sink in quicksand (and you thought this list was completely useless..)
26. The phrase 'rule of thumb' is derived from an old English law, which stated that you couldn't beat your wife with anything wider than your thumb.
27. The first product Motorola started to develop was a record player for automobiles. At that time, the most known player on the market was the Victrola, so they called themselves Motorola.
28. Celery has negative calories! It takes more calories to eat a piece of celery than the celery has in it to begin with. It's the same with apples.
29. Chewing gum while peeling onions will keep you from crying!
30. The glue on Israeli postage stamps is certified kosher.
31. "Guinness Book of Records" holds the record for being the book most often stolen from public Libraries.
32. Astronauts are not allowed to eat beans before they go into space because passing wind in a space suit damages it. I NEED TO REMEMBER THIS.

Lane County will spend up to $250,000 this year publicizing its tight financial picture, in hopes that voters in November will approve higher taxes for public-safety services.

It's an amount for county spending on publicity that has been unparalleled in at least the past 10 years. And it illustrates the seriousness of the effort to persuade voters

Utah Poison Control Center reminds everyone not to take poison

"Children Act Fast, So Do Poisons" is the theme for National Poison Prevention Week, arch 20 - 26. The Utah Poison Control Center (UPCC) would like to take the opportunity to remind parents and caregivers that poisonings can be prevented. In 2004, the Utah Poison Control Center responded to over 50,000 calls, the majority of which were about actual potential poisonings. Over 60 percent of the potential poisoning exposures involved children under age 6. The top five substances that children in this HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP) – Police searching a downtown home found a man hiding 15 plastic bags of crack cocaine in his buttocks.

Pierre Lynch, 20, of Washington, D.C., was searched after he went to a home on Charles Street Thursday night.

Police had gone to the home after officers saw suspected drug dealing in the area, Sgt. Jim Robison said.

Lynch was charged with possession with the intent to distribute crack cocaine, possession of crack cocaine, possession of drug paraphernalia, obstructing and hindering and making a false statement to police officers.

WHAT MEMORIES. WHEN A CAR WAS A CAR AND A TRAIN WAS A TRAIN.

Heber City, Utah. Union Pacific 2-8-0 #618 and a 1953 Buick Super. This has to be the classic of classic photos! It defies time itself. When you see this photo, you are transported back to those wonderful days when life was full of simple pleasures, back when we were satisfied with less and happy to walk instead of ride. And to think that you and I, and others, once had a stage like this every day for the greatest performance ever. Oh what the generation of today has missed. Great Memories!
