CLASSMATE ACTIVITIES

Annual Picnic

Wow, what a great class picnic! If you missed it too bad, maybe next year you will get off your rump and join the fun. Once again Gary Stenger carved a unique item for the door prize that was won by Elaine Finniff Smith. Click on the picnic basket above you can view pics of classmates who haven't "grown old." Also, if you prefer a short video, click on the following YouTube link <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eThyMVxtl7U>.

Ron Amos

Below are pictures of two bikes Ron Amos has restored and some of the awards he won at the Dayton Concours d'Elegance on September 19th.

Editor's Comment: Wonder if we could get a "restoration"?

John & Sandy Sapp

We usually take a trip in early September as a Birthday gift to each other. This year it was a 13-day Grand Western Canada Vacation. Highlights of the tour were Banff, The Columbia Icefield, Jasper, Sun Peaks & Whistler (think 2010 Winter Olympics), Victoria and Seattle. The Canadian Rockies and rivers are absolutely amazing.

"OLDIE" STUFF

Betty Norris furnished a Winter Street School Experiences pamphlet that has some neat pictures. Try to ID some of the folks. OBVIOUSLY they have changed just a little. Betty also furnished a Junior High School pamphlet and pics of the women's basketball team from 1953-1956. Click on one of the icons below to view the pics.

When the English settlers landed in Australia, they noticed a strange animal that jumped extremely high and far. They asked the aboriginal people using body language and signs trying to ask them about this animal. They responded with "Kan Ghu Ru" the english then adopted the word kangaroo. As I Mature

I've learned that you cannot make someone love you. All you can do is stalk them and hope they panic and give in.

I've learned that no matter how much I care, some people are just assholes.

I've learned that it takes years to build up trust, and it only takes suspicion, not proof, to destroy it.

I've learned that you can get by on charm for about fifteen minutes. After that, you'd better have a big willy or huge boobs.

I've learned that you shouldn't compare yourself to others - they are more screwed up than you think.

I've learned that you can keep vomiting long after you think you're finished.

I've learned that we are responsible for what we do, unless we are celebrities.

I've learned that regardless of how hot and steamy a relationship is at first, the passion fades, and there had better be a lot of money to take its place!

I've learned that 99% of the time when something isn't working in your house, one of your kids did it

I've learned that the people you care most about in life are taken from you too soon and all the less important ones just never go away.

If not...tough shit.
