CLASSMATE ACTIVITIES

Alice Ann Lindsey

Our daughter, Joan Colton, was married Saturday, August 11. It was a lovely wedding on the banks of the Magothy River in Pasadena at the groom's grandmother's home, Sunset Knoll. What a joy to see a happy daughter and her happy groom!

Another piece of news to share is that my granddaughter, Lindsey Kiefer, is using her Masters in Architecture from Tulane working full time at JP2 Architecture Firm here in Baltimore. She is also is in the color guard for the Baltimore Ravens Marching Band! Her picture in her uniform is on her FB Wall on Aug. 1.

Grandson, James Kiefer, is in his senior year at Virginia Tech as a University Honors Pre-Dental student. He volunteers with the Virginia Tech Sports Medicine as a Student Trainer. This summer he worked with a dental surgeon here in Baltimore as he has for the past two summers. In the near future he will be going through the interview process at several dental schools.

John and I are about to celebrate our second anniversary!!!

Remember 1955?

Did you hear the post office is thinking about charging 7 cents just to mail a letter?

When I first started driving, who would have thought gas would someday cost 25 cents a gallon. Guess we'd be better off leaving the car in the garage.

Did you see where some baseball player just signed a contract for $50,000 a year just to play ball? It wouldn't surprise me if someday they'll be making more than

I never thought I'd see the day all our kitchen appliances would be electric. They're even making electric typewriters

It's too bad things are so tough nowadays. I see where a few married women have to work to make ends meet.

It won't be long before young couples are going to have to hire someone to watch their kids so they can both work.

I'm afraid the Volkswagen car is going to open the door to a whole lot of foreign business.

Thank goodness I won't live to see the day when the Government takes half our income in taxes. I sometimes wonder if we are electing the best people to government.

The fast food restaurant is convenient for a quick meal, but I seriously doubt they will ever catch on.

There is no sense going on short trips anymore for a weekend. It costs nearly $2.00 a night to stay in a hotel.

No one can afford to be sick anymore. At $15.00 a day in the hospital, it's too rich for my blood.

“At twenty we worry about what others think of us; at forty we don’t care about what they think of us; at sixty we discover that they haven’t been thinking about us at all.” - Malcolm Forbes
