CLASSMATE ACTIVITIES

Fanny Selser

Jack and I will be going to New Orleans for five days from September 5th to the 9th. We will be staying in the French Quarter. Jack is an Annuitant Visitor for the United Church of Christ Pension Boards and this is the site of their national gathering.

Bob & Arlise Weaver Cianelli

We spent the first two weeks of August with our children & grandchildren. We did a historical tour of Hagerstown & Williamsport, visited family in Hagerstown, bowled, fished, went to the Orioles game, played golf, visited Mount Vernon, spent a long day at Hershey Park (above pic), ate a bushel of crabs and spoiled the grandkids to no end. We had to take two vehicles everywhere we went. We were exhausted by the end but what a wonderful way to become exhausted! Below are the "Fisherladies" of the group who caught some nice bass on our lake.

I'm finishing up a class of 11 Macedonian MBA students. I was originally scheduled to go there for 12 days, but most of them opted to come here for a week of class instead. I'm now scheduled to take a class of MBA students in Oman, which will include going to Oman for 12 days in January.

How Is It That A Wedding?

It often starts just with a look, a hint
Of smile, a mote of recognition glimpsed
Across the barriers we hide within,
The ones that distance us and keep us safe.
Who knows then how it wants to grow?
We bumble into adulthood like fearless
Puppies, burn our noses once, and yet
Again, not knowing what it is to love.

Like winding coil it gains in strength, like spring
It gathers green. And now we are aware.
“But wait!”, our lovers say. “Let’s go then, you
And I, make rainbows in the sky and paint
Ourselves among the stars.” And so, now lost
Together in a cloud, they’ve seized this day,
This eye of time, and made it theirs forever.
Perhaps that’s how it is a wedding starts.

But weddings have a never-ending ring,
A perfect circle come to symbolize
Our timeless love. We wear it on our hands.
We carry it within our hearts,
With honor, gratitude and joy.
This girl.
This boy.

First Flight

We didn't see it drop to earth that day,
But it was there, just when we stepped around
The tree whose trunk obstructed our passage.
Had any eye observed it fall to ground?

One wonders what the number is that fledge
And fall, the downy ones that struggle to
The lip, the edge, their world encompassed in
A nest about the size of one cupped hand.

There probably was no one near to warn,
Nor catch and break its fall. What confusion
Must have filled its mind, to flight be born
Yet fall to death the first attempt at it.

Long Term Parking

Some people left their car in the long-term parking at San Jose while away, and someone broke into the car. Using the information on the car's registration in the glove compartment, they drove the car to the people's home in Pebble Beach and robbed it.

So I guess if we are going to leave the car in long-term parking, we should not leave the registration/insurance cards in it, nor your remote garage door opener.

GPS

Someone had their car broken into while they were at a football game. Their car was parked on the green which was adjacent to the football stadium and specially allotted to football fans. Things stolen from the car included a garage door remote control, some money and a GPS which had been prominently mounted on the dashboard. When the victims got home, they found that their house had been ransacked and just about everything worth anything had been stolen. The thieves had used the GPS to guide them to the house. They then used the garage remote control to open the garage door and gain entry to the house. The thieves knew the owners were at the football game, they knew what time the game was scheduled to finish and so they knew how much time they had to clean out the house. It would appear that they had brought a truck to empty the house of its contents.

If you have a GPS - don't put your home address in it... Put a nearby address (like a store or gas station) so you can still find your way home if you need to, but no one else would know where you live if your GPS were stolen.

CELL PHONES

This lady has now changed her habit of how she lists her names on her cell phone after her handbag was stolen. Her handbag, which contained her cell phone, credit card, wallet, etc., was stolen. 20 minutes later when she called her hubby, from a pay phone telling him what had happened, hubby says 'I received your text asking about our Pin number and I've replied a little while ago.' When they rushed down to the bank, the bank staff told them all the money was already withdrawn. The thief had actually used the stolen cell phone to text 'hubby' in the contact list and got hold of the pin number. Within 20 minutes he had withdrawn all the money from their bank account.

a. Do not disclose the relationship between you and the people in your contact list. Avoid using names like Home, Honey, Hubby, Sweetheart, Dad, Mom, etc....

b. And very importantly, when sensitive info is being asked through texts, confirm by calling back.

c. Also, when you're being texted by friends or family to meet them somewhere, be sure to call back to confirm that the message came from them. If you don't reach them, be very careful about going places to meet 'family and friends' who text you.

Annapolis

Every Tuesday evening during July, the Naval Academy Band performs on the city dock in Annapolis. Also, some of the special Navy music groups such as the Electric Brigade (our opinion the best) from the Navy perform as well. It is a great evening. Bring your chair, come early have dinner at Harry Browne's or Piccola La Roma, enjoy the music and top off the evening with ice cream from the specialty shop on the dock.
