While at the show Gary ran into his former students Ty and Lindsay Mullen. They took classes for five years from Gary and received numerous awards for their carvings. When Lindsay was 16 and 17 she won Best of Silhouette, Youth and her bird went to the Ward Museum for a year. This year Ty received an honorable mention for his flying red-tailed hawk.

In addition, this winter Gary taught the 7th grade students at Barnesville School of Arts and Science how to carve and paint a scarlet tanager and the 4th grade how to paint an Arctic tern. The finished birds were entered in the youth division. There were 138 entries in youth.

Editor's Comment: Way to go Gary, great activity for young folks!

Jone Bowman Annual Golf Tournament

Good fun, good food, good prizes and most of all, good fellowship while raising money for a worthy cause that impacts virtually every family. The young lady, Olivia, was a ringer.
